

Southern Accents

The magazine of fine Southern interiors and gardens

January - February 2008

Fresh Style, Inviting Rooms

OUR ANNUAL DESIGN AWARDS

LEFT: Cushioned Palazzo teak lounge chairs and ottomans by Giati make stretching out poolside an inviting proposition. An octagonal umbrella by Henry Hall Designs protects against the Florida sun. ABOVE: The straightforward architectural style of the exterior allowed Betancourt and Sherrill the freedom to pursue a more exotic look for the interiors. OPPOSITE PAGE: In the back, a garden with orange trees, jasmine, and a sampling of other subtropical plants surrounds a 60-by-11-foot lap pool.

violet-colored flowers in a stylized Indian motif. And those curtain hooks in the master bedroom and foyer are no ordinary hooks. Look closely, and you'll see that they're shaped like tea leaves. "Your eye dances around the house and sees these things," says Sherrill.

And, with any luck, they transport you to the very place that inspired the design. ♦

For details, see Sourcebook, page 137.

See more rooms by Solis Betancourt at SouthernAccents.com/decorating.

